Domino® Sugar has been a renowned brand in the United States' East Coast markets for more than 100 years. The brand name, Domino®, was officially adopted in 1901 by a New York-based sugar company. Later, the distinctive yellow bags of Domino® Sugar would become the highly recognizable packaging of granulated sugar that consumers trust for their sweetening needs.

In addition to granulated sugar, the Domino® brand offers a variety of other sweeteners, including baking staples such as Confectioner's Sugar and Brown Sugar products. In recent years, the brand has expanded its portfolio of all-natural sweeteners to include Domino® Organic Blue Agave Nectars. The Domino® Sugar brand is sold by Domino Foods, Inc., which is the largest marketer of refined sugar in the United States. Domino Foods, Inc. is also a leading industrial sugar supplier for food manufacturers and offers a complete line of sweetener products for the food service industry. Domino Sugar owns three major U.S. refineries, located in Yonkers, New York; Baltimore, Maryland; and Chalmette, Louisiana, with a combined production capacity of 2.2 million metric tons of sugar per year.
